

Brown Institute for Young Learners

Dress Code Policy

Updated June 26, 2022

Our dress code policy is designed to provide a sense of pride in being a Brown Institute Learner and reinforce our sense of community and respect for others. All learners are required to wear the Brown Institute for Young Learners uniform Monday-Thursday. On Fridays, learners may dress in casual clothing.

Monday-Thursday

Tops: White or Grey Polo Shirt with logo (All tops must have logo)

Bottoms: Khaki pants, shorts, or skirt/jumper dress

Shoes: Neutral colored shoes or sneakers (black, white, navy-blue, grey, etc.)

Friday

Learners may dress in casual attire; uniform is not required. Clothing should be age appropriate and not hinder an active learning environment.

*All uniforms are purchased directly from Brown Institute for Young Learners. Please see director to purchase uniforms. *
